1. Among the fifty-seven Greek officers and soldiers who were released by the Yugoslavs on 7 November 1950, forty-five had been sent to prison outside Sarajevo, of which a number had been sent to do surface mining at Vares. Others had been sent to perform odd jobs at Pancevo, and some had been sent to work on collective farms in the Nova Topola area.
2. According to those who worked at the Nova Topola Farms only the tomato and pepper crops were good. All the other crops were a failure. Oats were not ready for harvesting when the prisoners left. Wheat yielded 25 carloads (10,000 kilograms in each carload) in July 1950 instead of the usual 100 carloads. Ten carloads of wheat were seeded in September 1950. Thirty apiaries at Nova Topola produced 700 kilograms of honey this year.
